To be confirmed with the successful candidate

This is a rare and exciting opportunity for an enthusiastic teacher who is passionate about teaching English and enhancing the life chances of our students. The successful candidate will be an integral part of our hard working and dynamic team of staff committed to supporting every student as an individual. APHS is a small, oversubscribed 11-16 school situated in beautiful North Norfolk. We believe strongly in an inclusive education and that every single student and member of staff should be supported to achieve excellence. Our team ethos is central to our success and we would welcome applications from similar minded professionals. We can offer the successful candidate training for career progression, the support of a highly committed governing body within a forward thinking and successful trust. Our students are polite, well behaved and deserve the best.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and all staff and volunteers must share the same commitment. The successful candidate will be required to undertake an Enhanced DBS disclosure. We are an equal opportunities employer and welcome applications irrespective of race, gender, religion, disability, sexual orientation and/or age. We value the individuality and creativity that every worker potentially brings to the workforce.

Visiting us prior to application is highly recommended. Please contact us to arrange a visit. By contacting Nikki Clarke at nclarke9srm@nsix.org.uk.

To apply please download further information and an application from the school website.
