Dear Parents / carers

It is with great sadness that I must inform you of the death of Jim Farrington, one of our Assistant Caretakers. Jim had a heart attack this morning before arriving at school and was taken to hospital in Norwich, where he sadly died.

Jim was well known to many pupils, parents and staff for his generosity, endless enthusiasm, hard work and caring nature. He will be sorely missed.

With an unexpected event like this there is obviously not the opportunity for anyone to say goodbye but we will have a book of condolence for pupils to write whatever they wish to.

Any pupils who need additional support can speak to any member of staff and we will ensure this happens. If you would like to inform us of this on your child's behalf please email the school office.

When we receive information regarding funeral arrangements, I will share the information with you.

Yours Sincerely

Alastair Ogle
Principal
