JAMES FARRINGTON

It was a huge shock to hear of Jim's death following a heart attack. He was without doubt one of our most charismatic members of staff. He was an extremely valuable member of our team. Jim had worked at Alderman Peel in our Site Team for 10 years and was very hard working, full of energy, reliable, mischievous and respected by everyone that knew him. We are pleased to have known him and will always remember his daily anecdotes and comments.

We will be purchasing a bench with plaque and planting a tree in school in his memory. A book of condolence is available in the reception area of the school for staff, students and any visitors to write in if they wish. This is a difficult time for the APHS family; however we know that, as always we will support each other as is the culture of our school community.

RE-ARRANGEMENT OF SKI TRIP PARENT EVENING

Feb 2018*Communication Guide for Parents and Carers

As you are aware children who receive support from their parents and carers in meeting the schools expectations perform better in their GCSEs. Communication is essential to maintain consistency and to rectify any issues when they arise. In an attempt to make this easier please see below a list of people to contact. As I am sure you appreciate staff are very often busy teaching or meeting with pupils, parents or other agencies to provide support. For example: There are fifty lessons in our two week timetable each of which is an hour long. Teachers teach on average 43 of these periods and also have to plan these 43 lessons as well as lead tutor periods, plan lessons and complete all marking. Many staff also organise before school, break, lunchtime or after school clubs or revision sessions.

Communication is therefore difficult and it may take some time to respond. If something is urgent, for example involves a child's safety or transport from school on a particular day please phone school. On most occasions email is more efficient and less time consuming for all. If appropriate the staff listed may ask other staff to respond directly to you.

Our website also has a "contact us form" which is checked at least every morning and questions or information directed to the appropriate member of staff.
